

Promise Research Bibliography – by outcome area
W.E. Upjohn Institute September 2023

This bibliography represents scholarly and policy research into the impacts of place-based scholarship or “Promise” programs, including those based in local communities, states, and at community colleges. The emphasis is on scholarly literature that uses a methodology that can assign causation, but the list also includes descriptive studies, policy papers, and evaluation literature. Not included are studies of merit-based scholarships, college access, or student support programs, or advocacy-oriented publications.

If you would like to add a publication to this listing, please e-mail huisman@upjohn.org.
